

perches to a stone; thence leaving said Frey's hollow north sixty-seven degrees west one hundred and six perches to a marked pine tree, north fifty-five degrees west forty-six perches crossing Little's dam to the north-east corner of the Catholic cemetery; thence north seventy-five degrees west one hundred and twenty perches to a stone at a gate post on the east side of an alley or lane; thence along the east side of said alley or lane south fifteen and one-half degrees west nine perches to a stone; thence north seventy-five degrees west twenty-seven perches to the east margin of Parsonage avenue; thence along the east margin of said Parsonage avenue south fourteen and three-quarter degrees west two perches; thence running along the south side of Jackson street north seventy-five degrees west thirty-two perches to a large red oak tree standing on the east margin of the public road leading from Hancock to Warfordsburg, Pennsylvania; thence south fifty-five degrees west ten and three-fourths perches to a large sycamore tree standing on the east bank of Little Tonoloway creek; thence down said Little Tonoloway creek bounding on the edge of the water one hundred perches to the place of beginning.

1906, ch. 315, sec. 224.

481. The government of said town shall be vested in the burgess, assistant burgess and three commissioners, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

1906, ch. 315, sec. 225. 1914, ch. 233, sec. 225. 1929, ch. 221, sec. 225.

481A. There shall be at least one registration day not later than 7 days before the election of Burgess and Commissioners, and all persons who possess the same qualifications required of voters to vote in State and County elections and have resided within the corporate limits of the town of Hancock for twelve months next preceding the election shall be eligible to be registered. The voters of the town of Hancock so registered shall elect by ballot on the first Monday of April, 1929, and upon the same day in every second year thereafter, three persons not under twenty-five years of age, citizens of the United States, and registered voters of the State of Maryland, County of Washington and town of Hancock, and residents of said town for two years next preceding the election, to be Commissioners of Hancock.

And on the first Monday in April, 1929, and upon the same day in every second year thereafter, in the same manner there shall be elected two persons, having the same qualifications as herein prescribed for Commissioners of Hancock, one person to be Burgess, and one person to be Assistant Burgess. All the officers duly elected as above shall serve until their successors shall be legally elected and duly qualified, and shall exercise all the powers and perform all the functions upon them respectively conferred by law.

1906, ch. 315, sec. 226. 1914, ch. 233, sec. 226.

482. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by ordinance of the Burgess and Commissioners, which